

Any thrown object orbits the center of mass.

In some cases the surface of the Earth gets in the way.

Speeds greater than escape speed are unbound hyperbolic orbits.