

Rocks and metals condense, hydrogen compounds stay vaporized

Hydrogen compounds, rock, and metal condense

Frost Line

Hydrogen and Helium never condense, and they make up 98% of the available material.